This award honours an underwriting initiative or new product launched in the last two years that has either broken boundaries in terms of innovation and increasing the size and scope of the market, has challenged the market status quo or has pushed the limit of traditional insurability. Judges may also consider entries from innovative capital structures.

The winner will be an efficiently structured, well priced and successfully executed initiative, with the recipient either the individual(s) or team(s) that designed the product or risk carrying entity or those responsible for backing and spearheading the initiative.

Judges will be particularly looking for evidence of successful take-up and profitable implementation of the initiative.

Candidates will be (re)insurance underwriting teams and/or their managers. Candidates may be working at a (re)insurance risk carrier or at an underwriting agency.

Online entry questions:

- Status quo: Describe the team involved in the initiative.
- Strategy: Describe the scope of this initiative, providing the goals, measures, and strategy for success.
- Innovation: Describe how this initiative has addressed the underlying concern(s) in an innovative fashion, as well describe how this initiative has challenged traditional approaches.
- Growth: Provide financial evidence for the success of this initiative.
- Service: Describe the effect this initiative has had on the provision of service to clients and any other contributing factors for its nomination.

Women in Insurance Award

This award category is designed to celebrate the strides and developments that the insurance market has been making to grow inclusivity for women and will be awarded to a champion of progress, representation, and inclusion. We are looking for the best initiative(s) with demonstrable contribution to the advancement of women within the industry. The winner of this awards will have developed a range of initiatives which could include career development, gender diversity, and work-life balance.

Judges will be looking for impact and influence not just on the business, but on the partners and in the wider market.

Definitions:

Career development includes mentoring, sponsorship, coaching, and talent management

- A mentor is a guide for you to get to your goals on your own
- A sponsor actively tries to get you promoted
- A coach is usually external to the company and sits with you one-on-one as well as, recruiting, retaining, promoting, and training initiatives, leadership development programs and other initiatives that find ways of hiring more women to key roles.

Gender diversity includes groups and networks (for example: women's groups with alumni, partners and clients present) and gender-based events, activities, or policies that work to break down traditional gender barriers.

Work-Life Balance Includes flexible working, maternity leave, and groups for parents etc. This category also covers childcare and any other innovative initiatives that support a healthier balance between work and personal life.

Online entry questions:

- Status quo: Describe the background behind the initiative and why it was put forward
- Strategy: Describe the scope of this initiative, providing the goals, measures, and strategy for success and how it has championed women in the insurance industry.
- Innovation: Describe how this initiative has addressed the underlying concern(s) in an innovative fashion.
- Growth: Provide evidence, testimonial or financial, that shows the impact that the initiative has had for women in your company.
- Service: Describe how this initiative has worked to influence the wider industry.
