

Entry Guide

Website: insidepandc.com/latamhonors

Awards entry portal: insideplatinamerica.awardsplatform.com

Recognizing the very best in the Latin American (re)insurance market. The awards will showcase the people, projects and businesses providing quality products and services across the region.

Our esteemed judging panel will review entries from across South and Central America and the Caribbean including Mexico.

Key dates

Entries open – January 11, 2023

Entries close – February 16

Shortlist announcement – March 30

Honors Event – May 25, Miami, Florida, USA

Why should I enter the awards?

- The most important and widely recognised benchmark for insurance excellence in the region
- Your products and services will be reviewed by our panel of industry leading experts
- Celebrate your team and their success in the sector
- Benchmark your work against the best in the business

Who should enter?

- Insurance and reinsurance providers; both national and international
- Brokers and underwriters
- InsureTech and start-up businesses
- Transactions and deals
- Projects, products and services

Eligibility

- The Honors are open to any organization working across the insurance market from Mexico, Brazil, the Caribbean and across Central and Latin America
- International as well national businesses are eligible if they have an office in the region
- Evidence, products and services should be relevant to the past 2 years from January 2021 until February 2023

Top tips for a winning entry

- Read the criteria first and think about your big success stories in the past year
- Start with the headline information. Then detail the targets, context and how you did it
- Remember our judges will review many entries; make it easy for them. Keep it brief but with enough detail and supporting evidence to validate your success.
- Upload supporting information using the upload function. Put your references and data there with a clear reference to the evidence in the main entry
- You may edit your entry after submitting, up until the entry deadline.

If you need any further assistance with your submission, please contact:

Chris Edwards - Christopher.edwards@euromoneyplc.com